The goddess sustain as a mother looking after the children nurturing with physical and spiritual. The concept and iconography has been used in different system of spirituality.

NASA has made some extremely drastic changes to zodiac signs, which predict your horoscope based on when you were born. Unfortunately, yours has probably been changed and you didn't even know it. Astrology uses the movements and positions of celestial bodies and interprets its influence on human affairs. For this reason, Zodiac Sign are popular. However, new reports suggest that aside from adding the 13th sign, NASA also did major changes in the dates. So, check out the table, if you have the same zodiac sign. The 13th zodiac sign is the new addition to the 12 zodiac signs is Ophiuchus.

The Babylonians purposely left out Ophiuchus because they only need 12 signs but this zodiac Sign has been present in the celestial body.

But we does not know why Babylonians left Ophiuchus ?

The sun reportedly aligns with Ophiuchus, the 13th zodiac sign for 18 days a year.

This new zodiac sign is the only horoscope sign that is based on the actual person.

Ophiuchus is based on a constellation of the same name, which is also known as Serpent- bearer in Greek.

Ophiuchus the 13th Zodiac Sign
